Official Form 101

Voluntary Petition for Individuals Filing for Bankruptcy

02/20

The bankruptcy forms use you and Debtor 1 to refer to a debtor filing alone. A married couple may file a bankruptcy case together—called a joint case—and in joint cases, these forms use you to ask for information from both debtors. For example, if a form asks, “Do you own a car,” the answer would be yes if either debtor owns a car. When information is needed about the spouses separately, the form uses Debtor 1 and Debtor 2 to distinguish between them. In joint cases, one of the spouses must report information as Debtor 1 and the other as Debtor 2. The same person must be Debtor 1 in all of the forms.

Be as complete and accurate as possible. If two married people are filing together, both are equally responsible for supplying correct information. If more space is needed, attach a separate sheet to this form. On the top of any additional pages, write your name and case number (if known). Answer every question.

8. How you will pay the fee ☒ I will pay the entire fee when I file my petition. Please check with the clerk's office in your local court for more details about how you may pay. Typically, if you are paying the fee yourself, you may pay with cash, cashier's check, or money order. If your attorney is submitting your payment on your behalf, your attorney may pay with a credit card or check with a pre-printed address.
- ☐ I need to pay the fee in installments. If you choose this option, sign and attach the Application for Individuals to Pay The Filing Fee in Installments (Official Form 103A).
- ☐ I request that my fee be waived (You may request this option only if you are filing for Chapter 7. By law, a judge may, but is not required to, waive your fee, and may do so only if your income is less than 150% of the official poverty line that applies to your family size and you are unable to pay the fee in installments). If you choose this option, you must fill out the Application to Have the Chapter 7 Filing Fee Waived (Official Form 103B) and file it with your petition.

Part 3: Report About Any Businesses You Own as a Sole Proprietor

12. Are you a sole proprietor of any full- or part-time business?

☒ No. Go to Part 4.

☐ Yes. Name and location of business

A sole proprietorship is a business you operate as an individual, and is not a separate legal entity such as a corporation, partnership, or LLC.

If you have more than one sole proprietorship, use a separate sheet and attach it to this petition.

Name of business, if any

Number, Street, City, State & ZIP Code

Check the appropriate box to describe your business:

- ☐ Health Care Business (as defined in 11 U.S.C. § 101(27A))
- ☐ Single Asset Real Estate (as defined in 11 U.S.C. § 101(51B))
- ☐ Stockbroker (as defined in 11 U.S.C. § 101(53A))
- ☐ Commodity Broker (as defined in 11 U.S.C. § 101(6))
- ☐ None of the above

13. Are you filing under Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code and are you a small business debtor?

For a definition of small business debtor, see 11 U.S.C. § 101(51D).

If you are filing under Chapter 11, the court must know whether you are a small business debtor so that it can set appropriate deadlines. If you indicate that you are a small business debtor, you must attach your most recent balance sheet, statement of operations, cash-flow statement, and federal income tax return or if any of these documents do not exist, follow the procedure in 11 U.S.C. § 1116(1)(B).

Part 5: Explain Your Efforts to Receive a Briefing About Credit Counseling

15. Tell the court whether you have received a briefing about credit counseling.

The law requires that you receive a briefing about credit counseling before you file for bankruptcy. You must truthfully check one of the following choices. If you cannot do so, you are not eligible to file.

If you file anyway, the court can dismiss your case, you will lose whatever filing fee you paid, and your creditors can begin collection activities again.

About Debtor 1:

You must check one:

- ☒ I received a briefing from an approved credit counseling agency within the 180 days before I filed this bankruptcy petition, and I received a certificate of completion.

Attach a copy of the certificate and the payment plan, if any, that you developed with the agency.

- ☐ I received a briefing from an approved credit counseling agency within the 180 days before I filed this bankruptcy petition, but I do not have a certificate of completion.

Within 14 days after you file this bankruptcy petition, you MUST file a copy of the certificate and payment plan, if any.

- ☐ I certify that I asked for credit counseling services from an approved agency, but was unable to obtain those services during the 7 days after I made my request, and exigent circumstances merit a 30-day temporary waiver of the requirement.

To ask for a 30-day temporary waiver of the requirement, attach a separate sheet explaining what efforts you made to obtain the briefing, why you were unable to obtain it before you filed for bankruptcy, and what exigent circumstances required you to file this case.

Your case may be dismissed if the court is dissatisfied with your reasons for not receiving a briefing before you filed for bankruptcy. If the court is satisfied with your reasons, you must still receive a briefing within 30 days after you file. You must file a certificate from the approved agency, along with a copy of the payment plan you developed, if any. If you do not do so, your case may be dismissed.

Any extension of the 30-day deadline is granted only for cause and is limited to a maximum of 15 days.

- ☐ I am not required to receive a briefing about credit counseling because of:

- ☐ Incapacity.
I have a mental illness or a mental deficiency that makes me incapable of realizing or making rational decisions about finances.
- ☐ Disability.
My physical disability causes me to be unable to participate in a briefing in person, by phone, or through the internet, even after I reasonably tried to do so.
- ☐ Active duty.
I am currently on active military duty in a military combat zone.

If you believe you are not required to receive a briefing about credit counseling, you must file a motion for waiver credit counseling with the court.

About Debtor 2 (Spouse Only in a Joint Case):

You must check one:

- ☐ I received a briefing from an approved credit counseling agency within the 180 days before I filed this bankruptcy petition, and I received a certificate of completion.

Attach a copy of the certificate and the payment plan, if any, that you developed with the agency.

- ☐ I received a briefing from an approved credit counseling agency within the 180 days before I filed this bankruptcy petition, but I do not have a certificate of completion.

To ask for a 30-day temporary waiver of the requirement, attach a separate sheet explaining what efforts you made to obtain the briefing, why you were unable to obtain it before you filed for bankruptcy, and what exigent circumstances required you to file this case.

Your case may be dismissed if the court is dissatisfied with your reasons for not receiving a briefing before you filed for bankruptcy.

If the court is satisfied with your reasons, you must still receive a briefing within 30 days after you file. You must file a certificate from the approved agency, along with a copy of the payment plan you developed, if any. If you do not do so, your case may be dismissed.

Notice Required by 11 U.S.C. § 342(b) for Individuals Filing for Bankruptcy (Form 2010)

This notice is for you if:

You are an individual filing for bankruptcy,
and

Your debts are primarily consumer debts.
Consumer debts are defined in 11 U.S.C.
§ 101(8) as "incurred by an individual primarily for a personal, family, or household purpose."

The types of bankruptcy that are available to individuals

Individuals who meet the qualifications may file under one of four different chapters of Bankruptcy Code:

Chapter 7 - Liquidation

Chapter 11 - Reorganization

Chapter 12 - Voluntary repayment plan for family farmers or fishermen

Chapter 13 - Voluntary repayment plan for individuals with regular income

You should have an attorney review your decision to file for bankruptcy and the choice of chapter.

Chapter 7: Liquidation

$245	filing fee
$78	administrative fee
+	$15 trustee surcharge
$338	total fee

Chapter 7 is for individuals who have financial difficulty preventing them from paying their debts and who are willing to allow their non-exempt property to be used to pay their creditors. The primary purpose of filing under chapter 7 is to have your debts discharged. The bankruptcy discharge relieves you after bankruptcy from having to pay many of your pre-bankruptcy debts. Exceptions exist for particular debts, and liens on property may still be enforced after discharge. For example, a creditor may have the right to foreclose a home mortgage or repossess an automobile.

However, if the court finds that you have committed certain kinds of improper conduct described in the Bankruptcy Code, the court may deny your discharge.

You should know that even if you file chapter 7 and you receive a discharge, some debts are not discharged under the law. Therefore, you may still be responsible to pay:

most taxes;

most student loans;

domestic support and property settlement obligations;

most fines, penalties, forfeitures, and criminal restitution obligations; and certain debts that are not listed in your bankruptcy papers.

You may also be required to pay debts arising from:

fraud or theft;

fraud or defalcation while acting in breach of fiduciary capacity;

intentional injuries that you inflicted; and death or personal injury caused by operating a motor vehicle, vessel, or aircraft while intoxicated from alcohol or drugs.

If your debts are primarily consumer debts, the court can dismiss your chapter 7 case if it finds that you have enough income to repay creditors a certain amount. You must file Chapter 7 Statement of Your Current Monthly Income (Official Form 122A-1) if you are an individual filing for bankruptcy under chapter 7. This form will determine your current monthly income and compare whether your income is more than the median income that applies in your state.

If your income is not above the median for your state, you will not have to complete the other chapter 7 form, the Chapter 7 Means Test Calculation (Official Form 122A-2).

If your income is above the median for your state, you must file a second form—the Chapter 7 Means Test Calculation (Official Form 122A-2). The calculations on the form—sometimes called the Means Test—deduct from your income living expenses and payments on certain debts to determine any amount available to pay unsecured creditors. If your income is more than the median income for your state of residence and family size, depending on the results of the Means Test, the U.S. trustee, bankruptcy administrator, or creditors can file a motion to dismiss your case under § 707(b) of the Bankruptcy Code. If a motion is filed, the court will decide if your case should be dismissed. To avoid dismissal, you may choose to proceed under another chapter of the Bankruptcy Code.

If you are an individual filing for chapter 7 bankruptcy, the trustee may sell your property to pay your debts, subject to your right to exempt the property or a portion of the proceeds from the sale of the property. The property, and the proceeds from property that your bankruptcy trustee sells or liquidates that you are entitled to, is called exempt property. Exemptions may enable you to keep your home, a car, clothing, and household items or to receive some of the proceeds if the property is sold.

Exemptions are not automatic. To exempt property, you must list it on Schedule C: The Property You Claim as Exempt (Official Form 106C). If you do not list the property, the trustee may sell it and pay all of the proceeds to your creditors.

Chapter 11: Reorganization

	$1,167	filing fee
+	$571	administrative fee
	$1,738	total fee

Chapter 11 is often used for reorganizing a business, but is also available to individuals. The provisions of chapter 11 are too complicated to summarize briefly.

Read These Important Warnings

Because bankruptcy can have serious long-term financial and legal consequences, including loss of your property, you should hire an attorney and carefully consider all of your options before you file. Only an attorney can give you legal advice about what can happen as a result of filing for bankruptcy and what your options are. If you do file for bankruptcy, an attorney can help you fill out the forms properly and protect you, your family, your home, and your possessions.

Although the law allows you to represent yourself in bankruptcy court, you should understand that many people find it difficult to represent themselves successfully. The rules are technical, and a mistake or inaction may harm you. If you file without an attorney, you are still responsible for knowing and following all of the legal requirements.

You should not file for bankruptcy if you are not eligible to file or if you do not intend to file the necessary documents.

Bankruptcy fraud is a serious crime; you could be fined and imprisoned if you commit fraud in your bankruptcy case. Making a false statement, concealing property, or obtaining money or property by fraud in connection with a bankruptcy case can result in fines up to $250,000, or imprisonment for up to 20 years, or both. 18 U.S.C. §§ 152, 1341, 1519, and 3571.

Chapter 12: Repayment plan for family farmers or fishermen

	$200	filing fee
+	$78	administrative fee
	$278	total fee

Similar to chapter 13, chapter 12 permits family farmers and fishermen to repay their debts over a period of time using future earnings and to discharge some debts that are not paid.

Chapter 13: Repayment plan for individuals with regular income

	$235	filing fee
+	$78	administrative fee
	$313	total fee

Chapter 13 is for individuals who have regular income and would like to pay all or part of their debts in installments over a period of time and to discharge some debts that are not paid. You are eligible for chapter 13 only if your debts are not more than certain dollar amounts set forth in 11 U.S.C. § 109.

Under chapter 13, you must file with the court a plan to repay your creditors all or part of the money that you owe them, usually using your future earnings. If the court approves your plan, the court will allow you to repay your debts, as adjusted by the plan, within 3 years or 5 years, depending on your income and other factors.

After you make all the payments under your plan, many of your debts are discharged. The debts that are not discharged and that you may still be responsible to pay include:

- domestic support obligations,
- most student loans,
- certain taxes,
- debts for fraud or theft,
- debts for fraud or defalcation while acting in a fiduciary capacity,
- most criminal fines and restitution obligations,
- certain debts that are not listed in your bankruptcy papers,
- certain debts for acts that caused death or personal injury, and
- certain long-term secured debts.

Warning: File Your Forms on Time

Section 521(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code requires that you promptly file detailed information about your creditors, assets, liabilities, income, expenses and general financial condition. The court may dismiss your bankruptcy case if you do not file this information within the deadlines set by the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, and the local rules of the court.

For more information about the documents and their deadlines, go to:
<http://www.uscourts.gov/forms/bankruptcy-forms>

Bankruptcy crimes have serious consequences

If you knowingly and fraudulently conceal assets or make a false oath or statement under penalty of perjury—either orally or in writing—in connection with a bankruptcy case, you may be fined, imprisoned, or both.

All information you supply in connection with a bankruptcy case is subject to examination by the Attorney General acting through the Office of the U.S. Trustee, the Office of the U.S. Attorney, and other offices and employees of the U.S. Department of Justice.

Make sure the court has your mailing address

The bankruptcy court sends notices to the mailing address you list on Voluntary Petition for Individuals Filing for Bankruptcy (Official Form 101). To ensure that you receive information about your case, Bankruptcy Rule 4002 requires that you notify the court of any changes in your address.

A married couple may file a bankruptcy case together—called a joint case. If you file a joint case and each spouse lists the same mailing address on the bankruptcy petition, the bankruptcy court generally will mail you and your spouse one copy of each notice, unless you file a statement with the court asking that each spouse receive separate copies.

Understand which services you could receive from credit counseling agencies

The law generally requires that you receive a credit counseling briefing from an approved credit counseling agency. 11 U.S.C. § 109(h). If you are filing a joint case, both spouses must receive the briefing. With limited exceptions, you must receive it within the 180 days before you file your bankruptcy petition. This briefing is usually conducted by telephone or on the Internet.

In addition, after filing a bankruptcy case, you generally must complete a financial management instructional course before you can receive a discharge. If you are filing a joint case, both spouses must complete the course.

You can obtain the list of agencies approved to provide both the briefing and the instructional course from:
<http://www.uscourts.gov/services-forms/bankruptcy/credit-counseling-and-debtor-education-courses>.

In Alabama and North Carolina, go to:
<http://www.uscourts.gov/services-forms/bankruptcy/credit-counseling-and-debtor-education-courses>.

If you do not have access to a computer, the clerk of the bankruptcy court may be able to help you obtain the list.

"SOUTH CAROLINA'S LARGEST BANKRUPTCY FILER"

BANKRUPTCY RETAINER AGREEMENT

Moss & Associates, Attorneys P.A. and the undersigned client (referred to herein as "Client"), do on this date enter into an agreement (contract) for legal services pursuant to the terms and conditions set forth herein. We are a debt relief agency and assist people in filing for bankruptcy under the Federal Bankruptcy Code.

I. Subject

Subject to the terms and conditions of this agreement, Moss & Associates, Attorneys P.A. shall furnish legal services related to the following type of bankruptcy case:

☒ Chapter 13 (Reorganization) ☐ Mortgage Modification Mitigation
☐ Chapter 7 (Liquidation) ☐ Chapter 11 (Business)

II. Fees and Costs

In exchange for legal services specified herein, Client agrees to pay Moss & Associates, Attorneys, P.A. fees as follows:

PAYMENT SCHEDULE

BANKRUPTCY

$300 Attorney's Fees Down
$313 Court Filing Fee
$613 Total Amount Due Prior to Filing Case
(☐) Down Payment (Retainer)
$613 Balance Due No Later Than 5/25, 2022

LOAN MODIFICATION

$500 by _____
$500 by _____
$500 by _____
$1,500 in additional fees

In Chapter 13 cases, $ 3700 shall be included as a claim in Client's Chapter 13 Plan. No such claim exists in Chapter 7 cases.

The parties agree that Client will follow the payment schedule specified above. The parties acknowledge that the total cost specified does not guarantee success in mortgage modification, since the bank makes the ultimate determination. Additional fees may arise for post-petition modification requests. Fees for any potential federal adversary proceeding or related demand shall be forty percent of the recovery plus costs, unless otherwise agreed upon by parties.

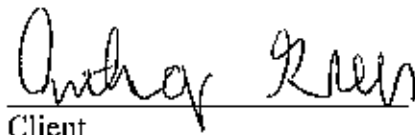

Moss & Associates, Attorneys P.A. agrees that, in exchange for payment of the above specified fees, Moss & Associates, Attorneys P.A. shall perform all services associated with the bankruptcy matter except for those specifically listed on Schedule A, attached hereto. If additional fees are incurred as specified in Schedule A, Client shall be responsible for such fees. However, Client acknowledges that Moss & Associates, Attorneys P.A. may be able to file a supplemental claim with the bankruptcy court, which would allow payment out of assets of the estate or Chapter 13 plan payments. By signing this agreement, Client agrees to allow Moss & Associates, Attorneys P.A. to file such claims with the court without further written agreement, if such work is completed by Moss & Associates, Attorneys P.A. The parties further agree that all fees paid under this agreement are non-refundable and earned immediately by Moss & Associates, Attorneys, P.A., except as set out in the Termination clause below.

Moss & Associates, Attorneys, P.A. agrees that all basic costs associated with the case, including copies, telephone, electronic filing, etc. are included in the payment schedule specified above. Client, however, agrees that other costs, which may be incurred as a result of the exceptions to fees listed on Schedule A, herein, are not included in the initial fee.

III. Termination

Either party may terminate this Agreement under the following terms and conditions: first, Moss & Associates, Attorneys P.A. may withdraw from this matter and take any appropriate actions upon failure of Client to pay in a timely manner; second, Moss & Associates, Attorneys P.A. may withdraw from this matter if they determine that they have developed irreconcilable differences with the Client; and third, Client may terminate this agreement if client becomes dissatisfied with the services of Moss & Associates, Attorneys, P.A. Fees paid by Client are non-refundable, and though if Moss & Associates, Attorneys, P.A. voluntarily withdraws or Client terminates the agreement for good cause, Moss & Associates, Attorneys, P.A. may, at its discretion, allow a refund of all or a portion of the fees paid by Client.

Excluded Services

As referred to herein above, the following is a list of services that are not included in the initial fee agreement. This list is not exclusive, as there may be other types of services that arise, which are not contemplated by the original retainer agreement. Generally, Moss & Associates, Attorneys, P.A. shall not be required to perform services for such work, unless the fees are paid by the Client. However, if the bankruptcy court will allow a claim to be filed by Moss & Associates, Attorneys, P.A. for the performance of such services, then Moss & Associates, Attorneys, P.A. may, at its discretion, perform the work and file such a claim with the bankruptcy court without any additional written agreement. Specific fees will vary, as amounts approved by the different trustees may be inconsistent and/or may change over the life of your bankruptcy.

Notice to Consumer Debtor of Available Bankruptcy Options

Chapter 7: Liquidation

Chapter 7 is designed for debtors in financial difficulty who do not have the ability to pay their existing creditors. Under Chapter 7, a trustee takes possession of all of your property. You may claim a certain amount of your property as exempt under governing federal and state law. The trustee then liquidates the property and uses the proceeds to pay your creditors according to priorities set by the Code.

The purpose of filing a Chapter 7 is to obtain a discharge of your existing debts. If, however, you are found to have committed certain kinds of improper conduct described in the Code, your discharge may be denied by the Court, and the purpose for which you filed the Bankruptcy petition will be defeated. Even if you receive a discharge, there are some debts that are not dischargeable under the law. Therefore, you may still be responsible for such debts including, but not limited to, certain taxes, student loans, alimony and child support, criminal restitution, and death or personal injury caused by driving while intoxicated from alcohol or drugs.

Under certain circumstances you may keep property that you have purchased subject to valid security interest. This will be explained by your attorney.

Chapter 11 (Reorganization)

Chapter 11 is designed primarily for the reorganization of a business but is also available to consumer debtors. Its provisions are complex and any decision to file a Chapter 11 Petition should be made in consultation with an attorney.

Chapter 12 (Family Farmer)

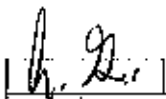

Chapter 12 is designed to permit family farmers to repay their debtors over a period of time from future earnings and is in many ways similar to Chapter 13. The eligibility requirements are restrictive, limiting its use to those whose income arises primarily from a family owned farm.

Chapter 13: (Repayments of all or part of the debtors of an individual).

Chapter 13 is designed for individuals with regular income who are temporarily unable to pay their creditors but are able to pay them in installments over a period of time. You are only eligible for Chapter 13 if your debts do not exceed certain dollar amounts set forth in Code.

Under Chapter 13, you must file a plan with the Court to repay your creditors all or part of the money that you owe them, using future earnings. Usually, the period allowed by the Court to repay debts is three years, but not more than five years. Your plan must be approved by the court before it can take effect. Under Chapter 13, unlike a Chapter 7, you may keep your property, both exempt and nonexempt, as long as you continue to make payments according to the plan.

After completion of payments under your plan, most of your debts are discharged, with the exception of certain taxes, student loans, alimony and support payments, certain debts including criminal fines and restitution and debts for death or personal injury caused by driving while intoxicated from alcohol or drugs, and long term secured obligations.

OTHER IMPORTANT NOTICES

The information you provide to this law firm and your bankruptcy attorney is critical and must be completely accurate. Giving false information to your attorney may lead to the denial of your discharge, dismissal of your case, fines, and imprisonment.

A person who knowingly and fraudulently conceals assets or makes a false oath or statement under penalty of perjury in connection with a case under this title shall be subject to fine, imprisonment, or both. In addition, all information supplied by a debtor in connection with a case filed under the bankruptcy code is subject to examination by the Attorney General.

Also available to you is credit counseling, which may be done by this law firm or another entity. Generally, credit counseling involves a collection of your debts with proposed work out plans with your creditors. These plans may allow you to repay your debts in a structured plan over time. These plans are optional for the creditors and may be viewed negatively on your credit report.

You must provide proof of a completed credit counseling course prior to filing for bankruptcy.

In addition, all information that you provide with a petition and thereafter during a case under the Bankruptcy Code must be complete, accurate, and truthful.

All assets and all liabilities are required to be completely and accurately disclosed in the documents filed to commence a case, and the replacement value of each asset as defined in Section 506 of the Bankruptcy Code must be stated in any documents requested after an inquiry to establish such value.

Also, current monthly income, the amounts specified in Section 707(b)(2), and, in a case under Chapter 13 of the Code, disposable income must be stated as defined in 707(b)(2) after a reasonable inquiry has been made.

The information you provide our office and used in your case may be audited pursuant to this title, and that failure to provide such information may result in dismissal of the case under other sanctions, including a criminal sanction.

While providing our office the information on your case, you must value your assets at replacement value. Replacement value is defined as what an item would cost if it were lost or destroyed and one of equivalent value must take its place. A common source for replacing items on a national level is through EBAY, which is an internet auction website. Nearly every item imaginable is available to be purchased, including; cars, clothes, furniture, appliances, painting, electronics and other common household items. However, replacement value on a car may involve other factors, such as dealer costs, which would increase the potential value. Noteworthy, with respect to property acquired for personal, family, or household purposes, replacement value shall mean the price a retail merchant would charge for property of that kind considering the age and condition of the property at the time value is determined. The time for valuation is the date of the filing of the petition, without deduction for cost of sale or marketing.

You will also have to provide our office with your current monthly disposable income. Your income, with certain exemptions, generally is derived from all sources for the past six months. You must also provide our office with your current monthly expenses. We will assist you in comparing your expenses to those with similar living standards.

You must also provide us with a complete list of your creditors. All creditors must be listed, and failure to list could result in the denial of your discharge or dismissal. You must provide us with full addresses, phone numbers, account numbers, amount owed and the date the account was open. The amount owed is generally the payoff, or an estimate of any potential deficiency. Failure to provide this information could result in the creditor's claim surviving the Bankruptcy. Also, if you pay child support you must provide us with the guardian parent's names, address, phone number and county where you pay support.

A. D.
Initial

Certain property that you own will be considered exempt under current state and federal law. We will assist you in claiming an exemption through your case so this property is not taken by the trustee in a Chapter 7 case, or nonexempt equity does not have to be covered through your repayment plan in a Chapter 13. Failure to disclose or take an exemption in property could result in the loss of that property or an increase in your chapter 13 plan payment.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION ABOUT BANKRUPTCY ASSISTANCE SERVICES FROM A ATTORNEY OR BANKRUPTCY PETITION PREPARER

If you decide to seek bankruptcy relief, you can represent yourself, can hire an attorney to represent you, or you can get help in some localities from a Bankruptcy petition preparer who is not an attorney. THE LAW REQUIRES AN ATTORNEY OR BANKRUPTCY PETITION PREPARER TO GIVE YOU A WRITTEN CONTRACT SPECIFYING WHAT THE ATTORNEY OR BANKRUPTCY PETITION PREPARER WILL DO FOR YOU AND HOW MUCH IT WILL COST. Ask to see the contract before you hire anyone.

The following information helps you understand what must be done in a routine Bankruptcy case to help you evaluate how much service you need. Although Bankruptcy can be complex, many cases are routine.

Before filing a Bankruptcy case, you or your attorney should analyze your eligibility for different forms of debt relief available under the Bankruptcy Code and which form of relief is most likely to be beneficial for you. Be sure you understand the relief you can obtain and its limitations. To file a Bankruptcy case, documents called a Petition, Schedules and Statement of Financial Affairs, as well as in some cases a Statement of Intention need to be prepared correctly and filed with the bankruptcy court. You will have to pay a filing fee to the Bankruptcy court. Once your case starts, you will have to attend the required first meeting of creditors where you may be questioned by a court official called a "trustee" and by creditors.

If you choose to file a chapter 7 case, you may be asked by a creditor to reaffirm a debt. You may want help in deciding whether to do so. A creditor is not permitted to coerce you into reaffirming your debts.

If you choose to file a chapter 13 case in which you repay your creditors what you can afford over 3 to 5 years, you may also want help with preparing your chapter 13 plan and with the confirmation hearing on your plan which will be before a Bankruptcy judge.

If you select another type of relief under the Bankruptcy Code other than chapter 7 or chapter 13, you will want to find out what should be done from someone familiar with that type of relief.

Your Bankruptcy case may also involve litigation. You are generally permitted to represent yourself in litigation in Bankruptcy court, but only attorneys, not Bankruptcy petition preparers, can give you legal advice.

CHAPTER 13 EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENT

MOSS & ASSOCIATES, ATTORNEYS P.A. agrees to make best efforts to submit a plan that will ultimately be confirmed by the United States Bankruptcy Court. It is understood that Moss & Associates, Attorneys P.A. is to submit a plan, provide client with a copy of said plan as soon as practicable. Client agrees to review said plan and become acquainted with its terms. If client does not understand any provision of said plan, client should discuss it with Moss & Associates, Attorneys P.A.

THERE HAS been no guarantee made that the Court will approve the plan of client, however Moss & Associates, Attorneys P.A. warrants that the plan will comply with the provisions of Chapter 13. Client understands that the proposed payments will have to be made for the plan to succeed, and that the payments to the trustee will have to be made by way of pay order- where they are deducted automatically from your paychecks, TFS, or mailed yourself directly to the trustee.

IT IS understood that the plan submitted may require amending, and that the parties shall work together toward attempting to settle any objections to the plan. Moss & Associates, Attorneys P.A. is not responsible for the accuracy of any balance owed to any creditor, as oftentimes clients do not have the exact figures.

CLIENT is responsible for all information provided to the Court, and understands that projections made regarding expected payments are based on such information. If amendment is necessary after the plan is confirmed because of incorrect information supplied by the client, additional attorney fees may be required.

CLIENT understands that Moss & Associates, Attorneys P.A. will not be held responsible for any car repossession which may occur between the time of contact with Moss & Associates, Attorneys P.A. and the actual filing of the case. Client should take his/her own precautions to avoid car repossession, especially if client have received a Notice of Right to Cure. Moss & Associates, Attorneys P.A. reserves the right to discontinue representation in the event that a car is repossessed, and an agreement is not reached as to additional compensation for Moss & Associates, Attorneys P.A. to regain possession of the car.

CLIENT understands that the proposals of Moss & Associates, Attorneys P.A. regarding the forgiveness of tax debt, or the taxes that would need to be paid, are based upon the information provided by client, and not based upon independent research done by Moss & Associates, Attorneys P.A. The timing of the filing of the bankruptcy case can be very important in the forgiveness of tax debt, especially if any tax returns were not filed, were filed only by the taxing entity, or were filed late (even if an extension was requested and granted). The fees charged for the case do not reflect sufficient funds to cover the time required to do such research. Client hereby waives any liability of Moss & Associates, Attorneys P.A. in not researching this issue before the case is filed, in order to keep the fees charged for filing the case to the amount indicated above.

Initial

CLIENT understand that Moss & Associates, Attorneys P.A. is not required to file a case until the Attorneys fees down and filing fee have been paid and all administrative responsibilities (including providing information requested by Moss & Associates, Attorneys P.A.) of the client have been preformed.

CLIENT should not assume this action has been filed until given a case number for client's case.

CLIENT understands that client may be responsible for paying certain debts directly to creditors, and client understands that failure to maintain those payments could result in the ultimate loss of property. Despite the bankruptcy, there are some debts that you may be continuing to pay directly. Often, mortgage companies and others will stop sending you bills and will no longer allow you to make online payments after you have filed a bankruptcy. Make a copy of your bill prior to filing to enable you to make proper payments after your case is filed.

CLIENT understands that client must make all payments, on time, of domestic support obligations coming due after filing the bankruptcy. Failure to maintain those payments could result in dismissal of the bankruptcy case. Moss & Associates, Attorneys P.A. will not be responsible for communication with or representation of client in Family Court matters arising from failure to remain current with post-filing requirements or in any way responsible for efforts to seek relief in the Bankruptcy Court in an effort to avoid a Family Court appearance caused by a post-filing default of Client, or for any reason.

CLIENT understands that income tax returns must be filed (if required) and any future income taxes owed (those coming due after the filing of bankruptcy) will have to be paid by the client. Failure to do so could result in the dismissal of the case. Future property taxes will also have to be paid by the client.

CLIENT understands that they must disclose the existence of any student loans for which they are responsible. Such debts should be listed, but these are nondischargable unless the Court finds, in a separate action, that the debt should be forgiven as an extraordinary hardship. An action such as this would require substantial additional fees to Moss & Associates, Attorneys P.A. Since not such agreement has been reached to initiate such an action, these debts will survive the bankruptcy, and will continue to accrue interest and be a legal obligation of yours even though we have listed the debt in the case.

CLIENT UNDERSTANDS THAT, IN THE EVENT THAT CLIENT'S CASE IS DISMISSED BY THE BANKRUPTCY COURT, THE ATTORNEY-CLIENT RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN CLIENT AND LAW FIRM IS TERMINATED. This employment agreement does not extend to Moss & Associates, Attorneys P.A. representing client post-dismissal. In order to undertake any further representation after dismissal, a new meeting with client may be necessary and a new employment agreement WOULD be required. Further, fees for such representation would be determined on a case-by-case basis.

[initial]

CLIENT agrees that additional fees, as indicated above, may be requested directly, or Moss & Associates, Attorneys P.A., at its discretion, may file a claim for those fees, to be paid over the life of the plan from the funds paid to the trustee.

CLIENT shall immediately notify Moss & Associates, Attorneys P.A. upon any CHANGE OF ADDRESS, change of phone number, or change of employment throughout the Chapter 13 case.

CLIENT shall immediately contact Moss & Associates, Attorneys P.A. upon receipt from the firm requesting a reply.

CLIENT should expect Moss & Associates, Attorneys P.A. to answer all questions promptly. Whenever an attorney is not available, client understand that he/she should speak with the designated bankruptcy assistant, who can answer many questions, relay information to the attorney and then call client back, or schedule an appointment with the attorney.

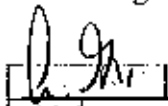

CLIENT understands that, if the case is filed jointly, attorney represents both clients. If, at any time, clients disagree as to the disposition of the case, attorney may find it impossible to represent both clients. At that time, the conflict will be discussed, and if necessary, the attorney will withdraw as counsel for both clients.

CLIENT will be required to complete two debt management courses before the case is closed in order to receive the discharge of debts, CLIENT understands that Moss & Associates, Attorneys P.A. is not responsible for updating or making any type of corrections or objections regarding client's credit report, or any account of a creditor, either before, during or after filing of the bankruptcy case. FURTHER, Moss & Associates, Attorneys P.A. has not obligated itself to represent clients in the event of some action of a third party which might violate the bankruptcy stay or otherwise affect client's rights. In the event Moss & Associates, Attorneys P.A. believes a third party has performed an inappropriate act we will agree to make ONE written demand in an effort to seek "correction" of the problem, but Moss & Associates, Attorneys P.A. will have no requirement to initiate an action in bankruptcy or State court to seek damages or other relief. A separate agreement between client and Moss & Associates, Attorneys P.A. would be required in such event.

CLIENT understands that any breach of this agreement by client will permit Moss & Associates, Attorneys P.A. to petition for Court permission to withdraw services, and all monies paid to the firm shall be retained as liquidated damages for client's breach. If client decides not to go forward with this intended action, for any reason, monies paid to Moss & Associates, Attorneys P.A. shall be retained as compensation for services rendered up to that point in time.

CLIENT hereby grants Moss & Associates, Attorneys P.A. a limited power of attorney to apply funds received from the Trustee or any other source, towards any outstanding fee balance, by granting Moss & Associates, Attorneys P.A. the right to endorse client's name upon such checks. Moss & Associates, Attorney's P.A. shall photocopy all such check and give client an accounting of all funds applied.
